

Alice POWER - CV (Eng)

Alice Power is a Swedish pianist, born into a family of professional musicians in 2000. At the age of 5 she started playing the piano with her mother and grandmother.

A meeting with Rena Shereshevskaya, the worldwide renowned pianist and teacher, made Alice move to Paris in September 2021 to start her studies in her class at École Normale de Musique de Paris Alfred Cortot. Rena Shereshevskaya is also the teacher of renowned pianists Alexandre Kantorow, Lucas Debargue, and others.

Alice is a laureate of several scholarships and international competitions in France, Sweden, Italy, Georgia, Germany, Poland, Spain etc. In 2017 she was invited to play with the Stockholm Philharmonic Orchestra on the occasion of the annual opening of the Swedish government for all members of the Swedish royal family and the Swedish parliament. Alice has performed in most of Sweden's biggest venues, in Salle Cortot in Paris, Rosey Concert Hall in Switzerland, the Radio House of Wroclaw, Frédéric Chopin's summer house in Poland, as well as in China, England, Romania, Jordan, Italy, Norway, Georgia, France - with Stockholm Philharmonic Orchestra, the Wroclaw University Philharmonic Orchestra, the Vasteras Sinfonietta Orchestra and also performs regularly in different chamber music groups.

She has worked with renowned musicians Renaud Capuçon, Gábor Takács-Nagy, Rafael Payare, Christian Lindberg, Marc Soustrot, and others. Alice is regularly invited to international music festivals in Sweden, France and abroad.

Since 2011 Alice has also been a guest artist in the big Swedish show "Rhapsody in Rock" created by pianist/composer Robert Wells. They have toured together several times and have played in most of Swedish big concert halls and arenas, as well as in England and China, with numerous performances on Swedish and international television.

Alice obtained her Master Degree in Musicology and Piano Interpretation in June 2023 and is continuing on her Artist Diploma under prof. Rena Shereshevskaya the next years in Paris, as well as actively performing in Europe. Before moving to Paris she was studying at the Norwegian Academy of Music in Oslo (class of Marianna Shirinyan) and the Royal College of Music in Stockholm for her Bachelor of Music. Since January 2024 Alice is as well one of the soloists of the International Menuhin Music Academy in Switzerland.